Masonic Temple Committee.

The Temple Committee held on Monday night it was decided to request the Grand Master of Masons in Virginia to give his consent to the canvassing in other grand jurisdictions for contributions to aid in the building in this city of the proposed Washington Masonic Memorial Temple. An association for this purpose, it will be remembered, was organized in the city on February 22d last when the Grand Masters of the various jurisdictions and a number of their representatives were present and expressed their hearty approval of the memorial temple plan. Already a number of contributions for the temple have been made and it is proposed to put a number of canvassers in the field and solicit aid in this undertaking. It is understood that solicitors will in a short time take the field in behalf of the temple and will open the canvass in Baltimore.

PLAYING INDIANS.

Several small boys, supposed to have been inspired by moving picture shows, a few evenings ago while on Jones' Point, concluded to engage in the innocent diversion of "playing Indian." A small boy was selected as the victim, and after imaginary tomahawks had been flourished about his head, the child, it is said, was taken to a tree, and bound and preparations made for his exit out of this world in the manner of Joan of Arc. The fire was kindled, but the boy managed to escape serious injury, although the great toe of one of his feet was painfully burned. It is said that a warrant will be issued for the arrest of the "braves."

WEDDING.

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in Washington last night when Miss Ada B. Ticer became the bride of Mr. C. Louis Folmar. The ceremony was performed in the parsonage of the Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties, the Rev. J. F. Wemmel officiating. Mrs. Alice M. Arnold, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor and Mr. Harry E. Arnold as best man. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Folmar left for a trip to Niagara Falls, Toronto and Thousand Islands. The bride and groom are well known in this city and have the best wishes of their many friends and acquaintances.

A SUGGESTION.

The condition of King street on Sundays is neither neat nor clean and its appearance by no means attractive. This is because the street is swept too early in the day on Saturdays. King street is now paved with vitrified brick from the river to the union station and is the principal thoroughfare of the city. In days gone by Washington street was the street on which most of the citizens strolled on Sundays, but conditions have changed and the crowd, both of citizens and strangers, now frequent King street, using that street for their walks to the union station or to the suburban villages. To these the untidy condition of the main street of the city is most noticeable and it is suggested that King street be swept on Saturday nights after the close of the market and after the many country vehicles and horses have passed up that street and beyond the city limits. A little night work would not cost the city much, but it would add vastly to the cleanly appearance of the city.

PREACHED ON PUBLIC SQUARE.

After an absence of nearly two years, Rev. John Cavanaugh, formerly pastor of the Free Methodist Church and famed as a curbstone preacher, returned yesterday to this city. Last evening he attracted a large crowd on the east side of Public Square by his oratory. He spoke in his characteristic way for fully an hour and in the course of his remarks he recognized several of his former "congregation." — (Wilkes-Barre Record, 17th.)

BASEBALL TOMORROW.

What promises to be one of the best games seen in this city this season is the one to be played tomorrow between the Cardinal Athletic Club and the Southeast Y. M. C. A., of Washington. The Southeast boys have the reputation of defeating some of the best teams of the District, and a snappy game is expected. The line up of the Cardinals will probably be: McBride, catcher; Trenary, pitcher; Astyke, first base; Whitton, second base; Pitts, shortstop; Hayden, third base; Murphy, Cockrell, Zachary or Dudley will be in the outfield. The game will start promptly at 5:00 o'clock.

HOME COMING.

A happy gathering was that which assembled at the home of Mr. Thomas Murphy, near Accotink, a day or two ago. Twelve children and four grand children honored the occasion together with many visitors, among them Mrs. Bernard R. Cline and son, Bernard, of this city. After a delightful dinner dancing was indulged in to a late hour.

There will be a called meeting of the Columbia Steam Fire Engine Company tonight. All members are requested to be present.

DEATH OF MR. BURSON.

Mr. John W. Burson died this morning at 7:30 o'clock at his residence, 607 Oronoco street.

Mr. Burson was a member of Harry Heath Camp, No. 119, Confederate Veterans, of the Grand Camp of Virginia, located in Washington, D. C. Before the war he was employed in the Land Office in Washington. At the beginning of hostilities, Mr. Burson, being in such great sympathy for the south, and expressing freely his sentiments, he was arrested and incarcerated in the old capitol prison in Washington. After being confined there for some time he was paroled and proceeded to Richmond, where he joined the Confederate navy, and after serving there for a year was captured and imprisoned at Point Lookout. Mr. Burson was again paroled and joined the 3d Virginia Infantry Battalion, in which company he was later discharged. He was later discharged as a private and was later discharged as a private and was later discharged as a private.

Mr. Burson was a personal friend of President Jefferson Davis, and left Richmond when the city was evacuated, on the train with Mr. Davis.

After the war Mr. Burson returned to Washington and was in charge of the money order department of the Adams Express Company, then he moved to Des Moines, Iowa, a republican city, where he edited a paper, the Democrat. Afterwards he again returned to Washington and later to Alexandria where he had since resided. Mr. Burson was of a quiet and retiring disposition and was very popular and well liked by his host of friends and acquaintances.

His wife, Mrs. Eneuella R. Burson, a relative of the late president of the Confederacy, and two daughters, Mrs. S. A. Sizer, of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Wm. Chapman, of Savannah, Ga., survive him.

The members of Lee Camp are requested to meet at the residence on Monday at 10 o'clock to attend the funeral.

PERSONAL.

The Vinita, Okla., Leader of August 11 contains the annual report of the county treasurer, E. D. Ficklin, brother of Col. T. H. Ficklin, of this city. Mr. Ficklin, who was an officer in the Confederate army, is well remembered here and his many friends will be glad to learn that he is now one of the prominent men of the new state of Oklahoma.

Messrs. James Patterson, jr., Richard L. Finks and Ashby Reardon left yesterday for a ten-day visit to Colonial Beach.

Mr. J. C. Creighton, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. C. S. Ebridge, of Washington, left yesterday for a month's trip to St. Louis and Oklahoma.

Miss Nannie Davis, of Alexandria, is the guest of Mr. E. C. Cullers and family at Rileville. She is accompanied by Miss Willie Fairfax. Miss Lily Makeley, of Alexandria, is with Mr. J. W. Huffman and wife, at Rileville. — (Page Courier.)

Misses Julia and Carrie Hardwick, of Atlanta, Ga., are spending a few days with Mrs. Richard Purcell on north Columbus street.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, who has been under treatment at the George Washington Hospital in Washington, has returned to her home in Nelson county.

Miss Eva Newlin, of Alexandria, is visiting Misses Tinsley's, — Amburst New Era.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Emerson Woormer, who have toured the north for the past two months have returned to Mrs. Woormer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Clapier, in this city for a visit.

The condition of Captain James P. Webster remains unchanged.

THE LIGHT COMMITTEE.

The committee on light of the City Council met last night and directed that the 36 gas lamps in the city (which are auxiliaries to the electric light) be at once fitted with Welsbach burners. When these lamps are so fitted the city will be much better lighted than at present. The committee also awarded the contract for relating the retort house at the gas works to Mr. H. L. Strider. This is probably the last meeting the present committee will hold.

The retiring committee has done excellent work and their successors will probably have little to do for some time. The gas works and the plant generally are now in better condition than for many years, while the earning capacity of the works has been largely increased; financially, too, the committee and the clerk could hardly have done better, notwithstanding the price of gas has been reduced to one dollar per thousand feet.

CORRECTION.

In the item in Wednesday's Gazette in reference to some shoe makers who were arrested for gambling the name of Solomon Michelson was mentioned. In justice to the latter it should be stated that he was simply summoned as a witness, and the evidence did not show that he was engaged in gambling, although he was in the house at the time.

STEADY SMOKER AT THREE.

The fact that Phoenixville, Pa., contains a boy but 3 years old who is an inveterate smoker of a pipe was discovered yesterday when John Doeck was seen at a railroad station with his little son, Peter, who was blowing whiffs of tobacco smoke from a big bowed pipe which filled his chubby hand. While the astonished commuters gazed at the pair, the little boy smoked three pipesful of an ordinary brand of tobacco. Some who questioned the father about the little fellow were told that Peter had just passed his third birthday and had been a pipe smoker since he was six months old, when a pipe was playfully thrust into his mouth. He set up a great howl when it was withdrawn, insisted upon having it and wanted it filled and lighted. Soon the lighted pipe became a greater favorite with the precocious youngster than his milk bottle and since then he has been smoking daily, all efforts made to break him of the habit having proved unavailing. The boy shows no bad effects from his tobacco habit and his growth has not been hindered nor has he ever been sick. He is a native of this country, his father having been born in Austria.

It will cost $7.50 to dine with Col. Roosevelt at the Congress Hotel, in Chicago, on the night of Sept. 8. Besides, one must first have an invitation from the Hamilton Club, whose guest he will be, and then draw for a chance to be a favored one. Engraved invitations with cards setting forth that the drawing for tickets will take place at 2 o'clock Aug. 29, have been issued.

Senator Joseph L. Bristow, who recently returned to Salina, Kan., from Wisconsin, in which state he delivered a series of speeches, today predicted the nomination of Senator La Follette. "I don't believe they can beat him for the renomination," said the Kansas senator. "I believe he will win out by a majority of from 50,000 to 75,000."

Although Samuel Gompers refused to say whether the American Federation of Labor would support Dr. Robert J. Black as an independent candidate for Congress against Congressman John Datzell in the Pittsburgh district it is generally believed there that Black will become a candidate and will be supported by labor.

Three persons were injured, two seriously when passenger train No. 62, on the New York Central, from suspension bridge to Buffalo, collided early today with a Michigan Central light engine at the American approach to the international bridge. Failure to observe signals is said to have caused the wreck.

Former Senator William F. Mackey, of Buffalo, who is carrying the Gaynor boom through New York state said at Syracuse, N. Y., today that nothing but death could prevent the nomination of New York City's mayor for governor on the democratic ticket. Mackey said that the same influences were behind Gaynor now that made him mayor.

With few matters of importance on his hands, President Taft, who is visiting Governor Draper, at the latter's home at Hopedale, Mass., left for Mendon, Mass., this afternoon, where some of his ancestors were born. The executive left in an automobile, the trip to be purely one of pleasure. At Mendon he tarried long enough to name a two weeks old baby, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Taft. "I'll name him Robert," the president said, "and I hope he will grow up and be a comfort to his mother and father."

Mr. Bryan.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 19.—William Jennings Bryan declined to approve a recent editorial suggestion by Col. Henry Watterson, of Louisville, that Bryan should consent to the nomination of a candidate in 1912 who bolted in 1896. Bryan serves notice that he will fight any such plan. In the Commoner, Bryan says:

"It seems to be assumed upon the part of those for whom Mr. Watterson speaks that no man is fit to be a democratic president unless he helped to elect a republican president in the critical campaign of fourteen years ago. If it would promote harmony for the six and a half millions to announce that they will gladly follow one who laid down his arms and went over to the enemy, would it not also promote harmony for those who left to announce that they will gladly support some one who has an unbroken record of regularity? Generosity should not be one-sided. Mr. Bryan is not at liberty to consider the matter from a purely personal standpoint. He owes something to the men who have three nominated him in spite of the influences that are now at work trying to emasculate our platform and substitute a reactionary for a progressive programme."

Praise for the Negro.

New York, Aug. 19.—High praise for the negro race was bestowed today by Col. Theodore Roosevelt, in an address to the convention of the Negroes' Business Men's League, meeting in Terrace garden in 50th street. The colonel was introduced to the 3,000 negroes by Booker T. Washington, president of Tuskegee Institute. Among other things Roosevelt said: "It is a real difficulty to make a reformer realize exactly that he wants to reform. You may contrast the types of race or nationality, but behind all there is always a desire to do better for your own class. The progress of the negro has been wonderful. Ten years ago you had little. Today in the United States there are 400,000 houses and 800,000 farms in this country owned by negroes. I cannot blind myself to the great race question that is here and I cannot withhold my tribute to the negro race for the part it has borne in the solution of this problem. In the last ten years the negro race has advanced until today it is next to the white race, the leading factor in the progress of the country."

The colonel's speech was received with enthusiasm. After his address he hurried to lunch and then returned to his Outlook office.

What Caused the Break.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 19.—The point of difference between President Taft and Col. Roosevelt, it is pointed out here as follows: Taft's acceptance of counsel and aid from Aldrich, Cannon, Hale and other so-called reactionary leaders. Taft's tacit indorsement of the "reading out" of the republican party of the insurgents by Attorney General Wickersham. Ballinger's construction of the conservation laws and the President's seeming acquiescence in it. The alleged deal with the New York machine republicans where by the administration, through Vice President Sherman, brought about the defeat of Roosevelt as temporary chairman of the republican state convention.

The Nebraska Election.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 19.—Nebraska primary results are hazier than ever today and the figures on the Democratic nomination for governor still lack one-third of being complete. Mayor Dahlman, of Omaha, is nearly 2,000 to the good, but Governor Shallenberger will not admit defeat, and reiterated his prediction today that the full returns from the western counties would show that he had won. Only the governor's managers, however, have faith in his prediction and Dahlman looks like a winner.

"TAKEN DRUNK."

The New York World prints a good story today. The wife of a New York lawyer was giving a tea at 5:30 and the husband promised to be home on time to receive the guests. Along about 5:15 after taking a number of scotch highballs, he thought of the tea and this excuse came to him like an inspiration, and he scrawled the following: "Dear Fannie, I am sorry to disappoint you but I have been taken unexpectedly drunk."

Interior Iowa cities today filed complaint against thirty railroads demanding through rates from eastern points. Manufacturers in these cities allege that they have been discriminated against for years.

New York, Aug. 19.—The stock market showed a steadier tone during the earlier trading today, although on the first transactions some material fractional declines were shown. At the end of fifteen minutes trading, however, the list was generally slightly above yesterday's close.

A strong tone developed soon after the opening, and an advancing tendency was in evidence during the last half of the first hour.

Stocks ranged lower in the late forenoon, the market again reflecting pressure for both long and short account and the room traders, finding little demand while this pressure was in evidence offered stocks at concessions causing some substantial declines after midday.
